

The Indiana Telephone Privacy Law is a law that serves the people of Indiana and made our life more pleasant. It has enhanced our privacy life and we encourage the FCC to leave the law alone and not cave in to the special interest groups that often proposes negative ideas for the politicians to consider. That is the case in regards to this law. Please leave it alone.